Atonement grabbed me from the very beginning as nearly all of B.J.Daniels' books do. We return to Beartooth, Montana and pick up with some of our old friends and acquaintances and we meet a few new ones. As always, there is mystery and danger and romance; everything we need in a book! I especially enjoyed getting to know what happened with Frank, Nettie and Pam. I was so happy to see the crows

The cover and synopsis of Atonement by B.J. Daniels sold me, and then after I realized it was the fourth book in the Beartooth, Montana series. Worries about jumping in late were quickly dismissed as each book can be read as a standalone. Daniels did an excellent job of reintroducing older characters and making me feel comfortable. Mini review: suspenseful, multiple story threads and a slow
