Bad News (Dortmunder, #10) by Donald E. Westlake
Although Bad News is the tenth novel in the Dortmunder series, I accidentally read it after the 11th, The Road to Ruin. As I noted in that book's review, John et al do not seem to age, but their world does advance along with our own.

Bad News is a delightful cozy that had me cheering for the bad guys because John, Andy, and their cohort Tiny are fun characters. The secondary characters are also appealing and quirky, although some are a little two dimensional. But the plot and Donald Westlake's writing style were so appealing that I didn't mind.
