man of words like me, can scarcely think of the appropriate adjectives to heap upon him. And being the modest fellow he is, it's unlikely that he'd do more than

New Zealand Rail Maps: September 2018

After Ida Valley, we head back to Otarehua, and beyond that, Wedderburn. This is an interesting section because of the climb over the Wedderburn Pass, which is the highest of the line's various summits, and because the map of Otarehua is already completed. I have elected to cover both stations in one article series.
