Escapade by Joan Smith - Goodreads

Joan Smith is a graduate of Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario, and the Ontario College of Education. She has taught French and English in high school and English in college. When she began writing, her interest in Jane Austen and Lord Byron led to her first choice of genre, the Regency, which she especially liked for its wit and humor.

4 Stars - Joan Smith is an old favorite of mine and I read this when I was in my late teens. Reading it now, it may seem like it's a decent book with fun characters and humor but don't expect sexual tension and graphic descriptions like you read currently. Maybe it's the nostalgic emotions that keeps this story close to my heart.

Smith has a gift for creating characters who can be ridiculous but quite funny. Humor is subjective, but I think you will enjoy this book if you can make it through the slow beginning. This book probably only deserves 3.5 stars, but I like Joan Smith. She makes me smile and laugh.
