This is the life story of Eugene Aram written by a man whom had some personal contact with him. There are bits and pieces of his life that were kept afloat before and after the trial. This is perhaps the most remarkable crime in the English register. This edition contains all five books, the crime segments: * Eugene Aram, by Edward Bulwer-Lytton

However, in spite of the extreme verbosity, Eugene Aram turns out to be a pretty decent book, a tale very loosely based on the real-life story of the titular character.
