Western novel writer Louis L. Amour made himself a successful career as a writer, focusing on the theme of the American frontier up until his death in 1988 at the age of 80.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: From the Listening Hills ...

L'Amour writes vivid football scenes with obvious love for the game; you can smell the player's sweat as it flies through the air after impact. The characters are also more attractive than in many of the other stories. The end, though, is a bit silly.
