Seth 2009 stresses that a key characteristic of the postcolonial approach is the deconstruction of the universalist pretensions of social science categories, and converges with Beier 2009 which argues that IR is itself an advanced colonial practice and must be decolonized in order to reach an international relations that is truly postcolonial.

Professor Sanjay Seth | Goldsmiths, University of London

Professor Sanjay Seth has published in the fields of modern Indian history, political and social theory, postcolonial theory and international relations. He is particularly interested in how modern European ideologies, and modern Western knowledge more generally, travelled to the non-Western world- and what effects this had both on the non-Western world, and on modern, Western knowledge.
