Amazon.com: Reasonable Faith (9780415430258): John Haldane ...

Reasonable Faith by Haldane is a very strong effort to situate theism in a justified web of belief. By and large, Professor Haldane accomplishes this through very interesting discussions of the existence of God, spiritual values, histories of theism/atheism, etc. A required read for people who study the question of the rationality of theism.

Anderson ...

He went on to add that my faith seems reasonable and my reason faithful. In his new, highly anticipated successor volume, Reasonable Faith , Haldane continues to explore these connections. And he does so in a sophisticated and elegant manner foreign to much contemporary work in philosophy. Haldane has rescued the discipline from its narrow logic-chopping and esoteric disputes to show how analytic methodology can be deployed to illuminate the most profound questions of human (and divine
