As a long time Sherlock Holmes fan, I found this book struggling to capture the essence and voice of Sherlock Holmes. The plot was a little predictable and the characters were very one-dimensional. I would not recommend this book to avid Sherlock Holmes fans. The story was definitely not the stuff of nightmares.

If Arthur Conan Doyle had teamed up with H.G. Wells and Jules Verne to write his Sherlock Holmes stories, I am sure the result would have been something like James Lovegrove's "The Stuff of Nightmares".
