The Aztecs (Michael Smith) - book review

In the popular imagination the Aztecs are inextricably linked with human sacrifice. Smith does look at this (and human blood offerings more generally) and some of the proposed explanations for it, but he also gives a broader outline of Aztec religion, covering creation myths and deities and the role of monumental architecture and public ceremonies. Turning to science and art, he glances at
