The Road to Memphis by Mildred D. Taylor uses the literary device of atmosphere very well. The mood of the story, which is dark and gloomy, is perfect for the book because it helps depict what life was like for African-Americans at that time.

The Road to Memphis by Mildred D. Taylor - Goodreads

"The Road To Memphis" by Mildred D. Taylor was a very dramatic, compelling book. This is the third novel in the series written about the Logan family and I have to say that with each sequel the story gets better and better. This book takes place in 1941, right before the outbreak of World War II. Cassie is now 17 years old and a senior in high school dreaming of going onto law school. Her older brother Stacey is working and is driving his first car. But then, a sequence of tragic events occurs.
