With Our Backs to Berlin is a collection of short German memoirs about the final battles fought between February-May 1945, with the primary focus on operations around Berlin. This book comprises personal accounts that author Tony Le Tissier was unable to include in his more in-depth campaign study, Zhukov on the Oder, but it is by no means a collection of left-overs. Many of the accounts Books by Tony Le Tissier \(Author of With Our Backs to Berlin\)
